

Naynesh Patel

Naynesh is a Partner at Simeio Solutions. Prior to coming to Simeio, Naynesh served as the Americas Leader for Identity and Access Management (IAM) services at KPMG LLP. Naynesh maintains key clients and manages engagements for Simeio Globally. Naynesh is also responsible for shaping and guiding Simeio's business strategies and operations, as well as leading the company's technology and product direction. He has provided services to organization in many sectors, such as government, telecom, retail, energy, automotive, financial services and insurance. Naynesh has over 15 years of technical and project management experience, and brings strong communication, organizational and issue management abilities. He has significant experience in Information Security and Identity and Access Management systems implementation, strategy, design and assessments.